PLAINTIFF’S AMENDED CIVIL COMPLAINT

AND NOW, comes the Plaintiff, Shane Amidon, by and through his attorneys, Jaime D. Jackson, Esquire, and Jeff Pomeroy, Esquire and files the following Complaint and states as follows:

PARTIES TO THE CAUSE OF ACTION

1. Plaintiff Shane Amidon is an adult individual residing at 210 Deerwood Drive, Baldwinsville, NY 13027.

2. Defendant, The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company (hereinafter “Goodyear”), was and is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Ohio, with its principal place of business in Akron, Ohio. Defendant, The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company may be served with process at: Corporation Service Company, 2711 Centerville Road, Suite 400, Wilmington, DE 19808.

3. Defendant, Goodyear Commercial Tire and Service Center #078 (hereinafter “Goodyear Service Center”) was and is a corporation existing under the laws of the State of Pennsylvania, with its principal place of business located at 7709 Rear Linglestown Road, Harrisburg, PA 17112.

4. Goodyear is one of the world's leading tire companies with operations in most regions of the world. In addition to developing, manufacturing, marketing, and distributing tires and rubber-related chemicals, Goodyear also owns and operates approximately 1,100 tire and auto service center outlets.

5. Among those 1,100 tire and auto service center, Goodyear owns and operates over 180 Commercial Tire and Service Center located throughout the United States. 7 of these Commercial Tire and Service Centers are located in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, including Goodyear Service Center #078 where the events giving rise to this lawsuit occurred.

STATEMENT OF JURISDICTION AND VENUE

6. At all times material hereto, Defendant Goodyear was engaged in the business of manufacturing, marketing, distributing, selling, and/or introducing into interstate commerce, either directly or indirectly, commercial and consumer tires, specialty tires, and various automotive services including but not limited to tire and retread repair, sale of new and used tires and retreads, wheel replacement, wheel refurbishing, and more generally, preventive maintenance for various types of vehicles, including commercial trucks.

7. At all times material hereto, Defendant Goodyear owns and operates 7 Goodyear Commercial Tire and Service Centers in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania which offer the aforementioned goods and services.

8. At all times material hereto, Defendant Goodyear conducted and continues to conduct substantial and continuous business in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

9. The Court has jurisdiction over the Plaintiff's claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1332 based on diversity of citizenship and an amount in controversy that exceeds $75,000.00 exclusive of interest and costs.

10. The Court has jurisdiction over Defendant The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. has consented to jurisdiction pursuant to 42 Pa.C.S.A. § 5301 because Goodyear is registered as a foreign corporation to do business in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

11. Venue is proper in the Middle District of Pennsylvania pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(a)(2) because Dauphin County was the county in which the events took place giving rise to this action.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

12. This action arises from an injury that occurred on or about April 5, 2017, at the Goodyear Tire and Service Center #078 (hereinafter "Goodyear Service Center") located at 7709 Rear Linglestown Road, Harrisburg, PA 17112.

13. At the time of the alleged incident, Mr. Amidon, who at the time was a self-employed independent tractor trailer owner-driver, was at the Goodyear Service Center having a tire repair completed.

14. As Mr. Amidon exited the office, an employee at the Goodyear Service Center tossed a large tire over a railing from the second floor. See photograph below illustrating the office and the tire:

15. The tire struck the Plaintiff, Mr. Amidon, in the back of his head, his neck, and part of his back.

16. Mr. Amidon was knocked unconscious.

17. Mr. Amidon does not remember every detail about what happened after he was struck, but he remembers going back into the office to speak with the manager, and he remembers taking photographs of the tire and the area where he was struck by the tire.

18. Mr. Amidon delivered the load he was transporting that day, April 5, 2017.

19. During the next 2 days, Mr. Amidon experienced bad headaches, photophobia, dizziness, and pain in his neck and shoulder.

20. Mr. Amidon continued working until April 8, 2017, when he went to Crouse Hospital in Syracuse, NY, where he was diagnosed with clinical signs and symptoms indicating a concussion and a cervical/shoulder strain.

21. Mr. Amidon saw, and continues to see multiple specialists as a result of being struck in the back of the head and neck by the tire.

22. As a result of the incident, Mr. Amidon suffered severe injuries including, mild traumatic brain injury/concussion, post-concussion syndrome with mixed anxiety and depressed mood, post-traumatic stress disorder, cervical spine sprain/strain, left shoulder posterior instability with posterior labral tear, and left knee sprain/strain.

23. The injuries sustained by Plaintiff, Shane Amidon, were the direct and proximate result of the negligence and carelessness of Defendants, and its employee at the Goodyear Commercial Tire and Service Center #078.

24. As a result of this incident, Plaintiff continues to experience daily headaches, sensitivity to light and sound, pain in his left knee, lower back, neck and shoulder, vision problems, memory difficulties, and panic attacks.
